DECLARATION OF SHAWN MOON

I, SHAWN MOON, declare and state as follows:

1. I am the Director, Database Solutions at Live Nation, Inc. ("Live Nation"). I have personal knowledge of the following facts, and would testify competently thereto under oath if necessary. I am submitting this declaration in support of Ticketmaster's Memorandum in Support of Motion for Final Approval of the Proposed Class Action Settlement Agreement.

2. In my position as Director, Database Solutions at Live Nation, I have access to databases with information about all tickets purchased over Ticketmaster's website, www.ticketmaster.com (the "Website"), from October 21, 1999 through February 27, 2013 (the "Class Period"). I have supervised several queries that were run against those databases to determine the number of transactions, types of transactions, number of ticket purchasers and tickets purchased by class members over the Class Period.

3. During the Class Period, 57,477,583 purchasers paid an Order Processing Fee ("OPF") for online purchases that were not fully refunded. The average OPF paid by the 57,477,583 class members was $3.16 per order. The average class member made on average 3.15 transactions over the Website during the Class Period.

4. There were 4,891,787 purchasers who made at least one purchase transaction over the Class Period involving a payment to Ticketmaster for arranging expedited delivery of their tickets via UPS. Those purchasers made 7,916,090 transactions over the Class Period involving tickets shipped via UPS. On average, such purchasers paid $15.17 per transaction for the expedited shipping services and engaged in 1.62 transactions over the Class Period.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.
